

ALEX SERGUEEV

Alex's background and experience covers a variety of skating disciplines with focus on national and international levels. His Masters Degree in Physical Education, with specialization in Figure-Skating, affords him an increased understanding of what it takes to develop, maintain and challenge the physical requirements of skating whether it be at a recreational or competitive level.

A few of Alex's credentials/accomplishments are:

- "Ranking Master of Sports" in the USSR
- Figure-Skating Competitor at the Russian National level
- International coaching experience as Skating Program Director and Head Coach in Germany, USA and Canada
- Ranking Level 3 PSA (Professional Skating Association) USA Coach
- Fast Track Certified Coach in Canada
- Coached Junior National and Sectional Senior and Junior Champions (USA)
- Coached Provincial Champions (BC)
- Coached StarSkate National Skater (Canada)
- Choreography for the "Hope in Heart" Ice Show in Seattle (involved multiple Skating Clubs and Guest Performance Skaters)
- Arranged choreography programs for TCFFC team, for participation in the international "Theatre on Ice" Competition hosted in USA
- Performer in the "Classical Ice Skating Ballet" Show in St. Petersburg, Russia
- Assisted in choreography programs for ice shows of Israel's National Champion, Michael Shmerkin
- Assisted in training 2010 Olympic Skater, Denis Ten, while in Canada prior to Olympics